HAPPY BENJAMINO

Happy Benjamino is Bio Benjamin's young chocolate brand, made for the young - and young at heart. It is all about taste, creativity, and joy, with a healthy twist. In order to meet growing demand, as well as a personal commitment, we use 100% vegan and organic ingredients. We combine these ingredients with high quality, fairly traded, and of course organic cacao beans from family run farms in Nicaragua to create innovative and nutritionally valuable flavours. As an example, Happy Benjamino can offer the world a unique protein packed chocolate or our most natural chocolates which use raw cacao and coconut blossom nectar. Everyone will find in this range something he or she likes, such as tasty alternatives to milk chocolate or white chocolate!
